aska covered hills with hekla bucket to the east i prayed basaltic ash clouds would cover the ever summer sun. martian analog i pace on moss that groans shifts under hiking boots. i did not want to leave the river, meandering jarðhiti. swimsuit in thirteen °c and hair wet with sulfur-altered steam

i pushed my xenolith fingers into silt & hoped the ground could collect me into igneous rock and store me in the mud under katabatic breeze and jökull.
