To Bleed or To Cause Bleeding

Lady Macbeth,
wash your hands.
The water will turn red,
but the shame is in your fingerprints.
Sure, you can shower,
but the river down your legs will return within the hour, it's only day three.

You're empty, aren't you?
Unable to carry life in you.
You failed this cycle, didn't you?

Lucia di Lammermoor
had what we have,
lunacy,
hysteria,
she went mad!
Blood on her dress,
blood on your hands,
blood on our thighs.

Let's sing a Coloratura aria,

pass
the time while the idiots scramble.

Smile,
we denied entrance this month,
we killed them.

Don't worry,
it's not our fault.
The moon is too full
for us to brute the blame.
