Signs of Persephone

I was driving and a black ram stopped my car. I almost hit it, and I honked trying to move the creature. The ram stared back as if waiting for me to do something. I have the sudden urge to eat pomegranates. I changed my perfume to a lavender scent because the Chanel I wore before it became toxic, and the lavender became intoxicating. I have the sudden urge to eat pomegranates. The willow tree in my yard and the ivy that grows on my home look like art. I stare at it for hours, transfixed, until my eyes burn from looking for something I cannot find. I have the sudden urge to eat pomegranates. There's someone in my house. Her hands brush hair from my eyes, torch in hand, leading me to hidden parts of the world. I have the sudden urge to eat pomegranates.
