BRYCE LEVAC

Trans plant

There once were three orphaned organs that needed new homes

*Two monkeys sit side by side, restrained
Good, he thinks
They will be of use*

Heart, Kidney, and the Lungs
Kidney and the Lungs are placed in SCS for two days
Heart only has four hours, maybe six depending on good behavior

*Monkey 1 is aggravated
Monkey 2 is frightened
Both just as easily succumb to the anesthesia*

Heart is then given a new home in Victor
Heart loves Victor, and Victor loves Heart

*Tubes connect Monkey 2 to Monkey 1
Nourishing Monkey 1's body and so/mi;ul/nd

Kidney and the Lungs reach day two Kidney's new home is Frank, the Lungs get Elizabeth

*A scalpel separates the skin, arteries, nerves, and bone
That connect the monkey's heads to their bodies
Monkey 2 dies in order to satiate Monkey 1's brain*

Victor's heart now beats steady as a rock
Frank doesn't have to worry where his waste goes
Elizabeth can breathe easier than ever

*Monkey 1's head is placed upon Monkey 2's body
They wait for Monkey 1 to regain consciousness
When he awakes he is aggravated just as he was before
Monkey 1 cannot move Monkey 2's body
Monkey 1 is put down
It was the ethical thing to do*

What perfect pairs they make.
